

Join the NCWTA
Triangle Chapter
Tuesday, June 13th
from 4-6pm!

Grow Your Business in Mexico With Simple and Accessible Tools and Resources

Featuring Special Guest

Miguel Antonio Cuesta Zarco

Raleigh's Deputy Consul General of Mexico

Miguel Antonio Cuesta Zarco has been a career member of the Mexican Foreign Service since 1992. During two periods in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Mexico City (1992-1997 and 2008-20011), he was assigned to the Department of Environmental and Global Affairs. His overseas assignments include Deputy Chief of Mission to the Mexican Embassies in Kenia (1997-2000), Israel (2000-2004), Morocco (2004-2008) and New Zealand (20011-2015), and as Deputy Consul General to the Mexican Consulates in Chicago (2015-2021) and currently in Raleigh since August 2021.

Whether you are thinking about exporting to Mexico or are already exporting with a desire to grow more, you will...

- Get an up-to-date briefing on the business landscape
- Get points of contact who can guide your business strategy
- Learn about available resources and how to begin using them immediately
- Meet other local professionals from across a variety of business categories

LOCATION: Hughes Pittman & Gupton, LLP, 1500 Sunday Dr., Suite 300, Raleigh, NC 27607

TIME: 4:00-6:00pm

SEAT RESERVATION: Free for members, $25 for non-members (includes seating, drinks & light snacks) – Register HERE by June 10th